The Newsletter for Middleton on the Wolds
Issue No 8

September 2019

2019
OPEN STUDIOS

During the weekends of September 21st – 22nd and 28th – 29th there will be around 60 venues to visit across East Yorkshire where artists and crafts people, returning and new, will be displaying and selling their work. Many venues are working studios not normally open to visitors so this is a great opportunity to see behind the scenes and to view or to purchase artwork created locally and often inspired by the beauty and diversity of the East Yorkshire landscape.

The open studios covers areas around Bridlington, Driffield, Pocklington, Beverley and Hull and studios will be open from 10am to 5pm (please note that times may vary – exact details are in our brochure).

Visit our website www.eastyorkshireopenstudios.org or find us on facebook.

Lesley Green is extending an invitation to visit a display of her ceramic sculptures at

4 St Andrews Close
Middleton on the Wolds

She is the only artist showing in Middleton but there are also artists showing in North Dalton and near Lund.

These lovely puffins are an example of her work.

EDITORIAL

I've been on a course in the last month to make me a better (or at least competent!) Parish Councillor. It was a very good course and one thing that I learned was that there has to be a division between what I say as a councillor and what I say as editor of the Messenger.

So I just want to be clear that, regarding content, the Messenger is completely independent of the Middleton on the Wolds Parish Council and anything I write in my editorials is my personal opinion, not my position as a councillor. I hope that's clear.

Other than that, the summer is a pretty lean time in terms of events so I haven't got much to say. So, if you want me to cover anything next month and:

If you have any ideas, comments or complaints (especially complaints) you want to share then send an email to middletonflyer@yahoo.com. Remember, we can't respond unless we receive your message.

Cheers,

Mike

NEXT COPY DATE 14th September

I look forward to receiving your articles, posters or programmes ready for the October Messenger by email at middletonflyer@yahoo.com.or, if you are not online, you can pop them through my door.

If you don't get an acknowledgement from me please get in touch.

I have been asked for recipes so the first is on p16—please send some in for future editions.

I hope everyone is aware that the Black Yak advertisement (near the back of the Messenger) is more than just an advert. Every month it is an article about one of their workers with lovely photos. This month it is about Sarmila - please don't miss it!

MESSENGER CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Mike,

Having read Steve R. Johnson's letter in this months edition, I have to say I agree with his view that the path going from Orchard Drive in front of the play area is a priority; in addition, the public path that runs up the side of the playground towards front street also needs some attention to keep access open.

Could someone clarify if the latter is the responsibility of the Parish Council or The East Riding Council?

Incidentally, regarding the lack of provision you mention, I wonder why that is the case? Surely this issue is not new? Perhaps the PC could look into what grants are available and feed back in Septembers Messenger?

Regards

Renny Mullen
Pickering Park.

Hi Mike

Just a comeback on your reply to my question about sorting the pathway along side the Kids play area.

Firstly since I raised this issue over two years ago, and given the Parish Council didn't budget anything into the budget for 2019/20, I can only assume that they thought money was better spent doing things like putting in new steps for access and clearing a pathway down the old railway line so people can walk their dogs and let them do what dogs do....I suppose there is a bit of logic there...it keeps it off the paths around the village..... What's up with walking along our good old country lanes.

In reference to the villagers doing the work, what is the position in today's claim culture if someone were to have a fall or something....who would be liable....the people who did the work or the Parish Council.

Clearing rubbish from roadsides and old railway lines shouldn't open up any question about liability I would think, but creating a new path I'm not so sure.....

By the way you're doing a great job with the Middleton Messenger, see I'm not all negative.....

Cheers

Steve Johnson
Orchard Drive

Hi Steve and Renny,

You raise some valid points and I'll try to give you a reasonable response.

The path was discussed in the January 2019 meeting when it was agreed that the council would obtain quotes for the work. At the March meeting the council decided to put work on the path on hold due to budgetary restraints. By May only one, very high, quote had been received; it was rejected and it was agreed that further quotes be sought. In July quotes had been received; one for £1809 was favoured, but further quotes were to be obtained, as extra funding needs to be sourced to pay for it. All this information is in the Parish Council minutes (<http://www.middletononthewolds.co.uk/minutes.aspx>).

The question remains as to why provision hasn't been made for the path, given that you raised it over two years ago. The answer is that, with the limited funds available to the council, other expenditure has been given priority. However, you can see from the above that it is now higher on the list.

I see your point about who would be liable for work done by volunteers and, to be honest, I haven't got an answer. As you say, there are different types of work that can be done by volunteers and they all have different levels of liability risk. The crux of the matter is that each task must be judged on its own merits. Clearly any such action on the footpath would need further consideration.

I hope this update has helped clarify the council's position on this matter. I would just like to point out that this response is from me as a councillor, not as editor of the Messenger. I think it is important to make the distinction.

FIRST RESPONDERS

Middleton on the Wolds Community First Responders

Did you know that the Middleton on the Wolds Community Responder Scheme has been active since 2001?

We are called out, when appropriate, when an ambulance is called to attend a patient. More often than not, it is a matter of being with and reassuring the patient until the ambulance arrives.

We receive regular training in CPR, the use of a defibrillator, oxygen and pulseoxymetry (all part of our kit) and so much more besides.

Like to find out more or have a nosey around the exhibition ambulance, come and see us at 5 Front Street (formerly the old Land Rover Garage) Middleton on the Wolds on Sunday 22nd September between 12 noon and 4pm.

LOCAL HISTORY

PARISH POLITICS

"Thursday night will be memorable in the history of the rural parishes of the East Riding and in fact in every part of England". This was the bold assertion of the Driffield Times in November 1894. Today it is difficult to find sufficient people to serve as parish councillors but for the first election the competition was cut-throat with 32 candidates for 11 seats. They were all male but need not have been as the struggle by women to vote for Parliament has obscured the fact that they could with certain restrictions vote for and indeed serve on Parish Councils. In Middleton, with the exception of Mrs Clements who served sporadically on the council at the end of the first war, the minutes reveal that there were no female members before 1940.

The East Riding County Council had been established in 1888 followed by district and parish councils which were designed to remedy the administrative chaos caused by having separate bodies, some recent creations, others remnants from previous centuries and as the new authorities were directly elected by secret ballot and with the votes of agricultural workers the domination of local affairs by the gentry was gradually challenged. Law enforcement had changed too with the creation of the County Police Force in 1856, while the stocks, that cure-all punishment from the past, was last used in Middleton in June 1854.

Top of the poll in Middleton's first parish council election was Arthur Brooksbank JP with 58 votes and bottom Philip Imeson, sexton, with 2. The others elected were W. Wilson, W.T. Hornby, and R Witty farmers, W. Hotham, seedsman, W Petch and Edmund Dooks joiners, A.E. Towse labourer, W. Wright veterinary surgeon, W. Thompson blacksmith, D. B. Soanes grocer and draper.

Captain A H Brooksbank JP

Robert Witty was elected chairman with nine votes, while Colonel Brooksbank only received two. William Wright was the vice chairman, A. Dooks the clerk with Mr Sharp of the York Union Bank as treasurer. Colonel Brooksbank was chairman for a few months in 1897 and his son held the position from 1910 until his death in 1917. For years meetings, which were less frequent than today, were held in the school and matters discussed by the parish council included pits, allotments, charities, pumps, lighting, guide posts and street sweeping - not much different from today's concerns.

The coming of the motor transport in the 20th century and the modernising of roads that had scarcely been adequate for an earlier age was just one of the problems that the County Council needed to address. Education was another and later electricity and piped water supplies.

The Parish Council played its part as a watch dog informing the County of its concerns as in 1923 when following a request by G. Eastwood and D. B. Soanes it asked the County Council to adopt a speed limit of 5 miles per hour through the village for motor traffic - did it ever happen?

In October 1944 the Parish Council considered the provision of a playing field for the village as a memorial to the men and women serving in the forces and set up a committee to raise money In 1950 the football and cricket pitches were ready for play.

Forty years after their inception an Oxford historian referred to the enthusiasm with which the first councils were elected and the cruel disillusionment when it was found that everything which they had a mandate to do was beyond their purses. Maybe, but they succeeded in the original aim of separating church matters which the Vestry continued to manage and all other basic village concerns.

Calling all Middleton young people aged 10-20!

Are you interested in being part of a village Youth Club? Could you older teenagers help run a club that is open to all young people in this age range?

What kind of club would it be and what would you need to set it up?

The Parish Council is keen to support a Youth Club venture but it requires you, the young people of the village to get involved and both help run and participate in such a club. Could this happen? Any adults from the village willing to get involved and help support such a club? Got any ideas? If so please contact and share with any parish councillor or email nj@motwparishcouncil.co.uk

So, over to you!?

Nick Jones

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

The Parish Council have now formally taken over the running of the Reading Rooms and have set up a Sub Committee to oversee this on behalf of the Parish Council. Members of the Parish and a number of other people in the village felt the Reading Rooms provide an important and valuable meeting place; which has had many uses over the years and therefore should be kept and hopefully refurbished. The Reading Rooms are part of a charitable trust and were previously run by the Village Hall Committee. The previous committee has worked hard over the last few years to financially support both the Village Hall and The Reading Rooms; however bookings from within the village over recent years have been very disappointing. We would like to encourage anyone in the village to consider using the building for any parties, events, new clubs or meetings you may be considering; and for everyone to support any events that are booked. We will need to apply and hopefully receive grants from various sources in order to refurbish the rooms and hope the village can unite and offer support in order that the building does not have to eventually be sold and we lose yet another community building.

To book the Reading Rooms contact Kath Bentley on 217456 or motwpc@hotmail.co.uk

Last month we reported we were considering what our village could do to celebrate VE Day 75; and we have received various suggestions from one or two members of the village; however we would like as much support / encouragement as possible with planning a village event. It would be great to see the village celebrate as a whole, together and remembering those who served for our country.

As previously mentioned we now have a full complement of Councillors; and all our Councillors work voluntarily to support the village and have great passion for Middleton. We would welcome anyone from Middleton to attend our meetings which are on the first Monday of the month; should you have any concerns or proposed suggestions you would like to share with us.

Other Matters

Being a dog owner I was shocked to discover the salt bin at the top of Goodmanham Road with several dog poo bags left in it. This bin is for salt only and why should council workers take your dog poo away. I often feel dog owner's get moaned at about not picking up and many good dog owners do pick up every time; however we all need to be responsible and deposit our bags in the bins provided around the village or take it home to your own bin. The Council workers who fill the salt bins have left a message – is this to you?

MIDDLETON BOWLS CLUB

Summer is almost at an end, and the prospect of long dark evenings, and miserable wet afternoons, looms on the horizon.

So, what to do on those afternoons and evenings, in order to get some gentle exercise and socialise with other people ( most of who will be from the village ).

COME AND TRY INDOOR BOWLS at Middleton Indoor Bowls Club. No previous experience is necessary. 'Coaching' will be available for anyone. We have just one young player – Harry Newlove, 18 years. He is in need of some other younger players who can create a challenge for him. So, young people put away those mobiles and computers for a couple of hours. Come and see if you can beat Harry.

Middleton Indoor Bowls facility will restart on 1st September, although if anyone wishes to 'give-it-a-go' during August we will try to accommodate them. The Club has two full size rinks. The building is heated, has a seating/viewing area, and a kitchen with coffee/tea making facilities.

This village facility is available to anyone for occasional use. The only stipulation is the use of flat smooth soled footwear. The charge, to non-Club members, is £ 3-50p per person per two hour session. For Club Members our annual subs are £5 ( YES, only five pounds ) per year, with sessions costing only £3 per person.

Our Indoor afternoon 'Aussie' Pairs, Evening Pairs and afternoon Triples Leagues will commence at the beginning of October. These Leagues are for Club members, but anyone can become a Club member. The Leagues are a great way to experience, and improve, your bowls. The Leagues are played in a friendly manner, and range in skill from novice to advanced. The latter giving advice and tips to the former.

For any further information, or to book a rink, please contact either Rob or Di Bradley. Tel. No. ( 01377 ) 217435

LOCAL BIRDS & WILDLIFE

It's been a busy time in the village since the last newsletter, with young birds frantically chasing their parents around begging for food, butterflies springing into life between bouts of fearsome weather, and bats, owls and hedgehogs taking over the gardens after the rest have gone to bed.

Becky in Orchard Drive reports that "...three very chunky hedgehogs have been in the garden every night keeping the slugs at bay! There seems to be a lot of frogs this year too, maybe the wet weather is treating them well? But we don't have a pond - yet!" She also has a Greater Spotted Woodpecker visiting, and Tree Sparrows nesting in an old House Sparrow nesting spot - "I didn't know they nested in houses, but they are clearly a resourceful bunch - just as well given their status!"

It seems to be a good year for bats; Becky suspects she might have some (possibly Pipistrelles) in her roof, and they have been seen swooping around the Orchard Drive Play Area, as well as along the embankment. Could anyone help me with identification? I have a bat detector, but it is not the sophisticated type that can tell species apart.

I do like it when wildlife watching just necessitates getting up in the morning and blearily wandering into the sitting room; recently this beautiful Elephant Hawk Moth was sitting waiting for me inside our patio door, where it stayed for plenty of time to admire it from all angles.

I look forward to hearing of more wildlife around the village; if you would like to send a picture as a jpg, I will forward it to be included (space permitting).

MIDDLETON BOOK GROUP

I chose the books for August as they were easy, holiday reads. I like to read a story set in the place I am to visit and found “A Piano in the Pyrenees” by Tony Hawks, not realising that he was a comedian and panellist on programmes like Have I Got News For You and Just a Minute.

It is a gently amusing read about him buying a house on a whim when on a skiing trip so that he has somewhere to practice the piano. Then he decides to take his own piano from England. We hear about the disastrous journey in a white van and all the problems he has installing a swimming pool. Various friends visit, he gets to know his neighbours and all the while he is looking for his soulmate. Those who read it enjoyed it but we understand that his first book “Round Ireland with a Fridge” is his best so I will be trying that next - I may have to plan a visit to Ireland...

The second book, “The Inaugural Meeting of the Fairvale Ladies Book Club” by Sophie Green is set in the 1970s’ Northern Territories of Australia and brings together 5 very different women to discuss books and life (much the same as ours). The difference with theirs is the huge distances they have to go - 2 hours by truck from the town - plus they can only meet in the dry season as there is no travelling to the cattle ranch in the wet.

We see life on the ranch, follow a nurse with the Flying Doctors, sympathise with a young mother of 3 with an abusive husband and with an American girl’s love for an Aboriginal ranch hand. Again it was enjoyed by those who had read it and we recommend it.

THANK YOU

Festive Feast

A massive thank you to all the ladies and gentlemen who prepared and decorated the Village Hall so tastefully and impressively cooked, baked and served a delicious luncheon, generously donated a huge selection of wonderful raffle prizes and cleaned up so effectively afterwards.

The fantastic and superb support of the guests, many of whom had travelled significant distances, was much appreciated and contributed greatly to a very happy, rewarding and successful occasion.

Including cash donations, the event raised £850 and St Andrews Church will benefit enormously.

Thank you to everyone involved.

BLACK YAK

High Quality Fair Trade Clothes, Crafts & Accessories

Be an Individual

Meet our wonderful Sarmila Bhele. Sarmila keeps us all straight at our new workshops in the ancient city of Bhaktapur. Bhaktapur is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is about 8 miles east of Kathmandu in Nepal. Sarmila is the leader of a group of about 25 knitters who live in the area and work from home and our new workshops.

Sarmila is 31 years old and is married to Rameshwar and they have an 11 year old son called Aayan. Rameshwar is the owner operator of his own bus in and around Kathmandu. Black Yak pays for Aayan's schooling in a local school. We could not operate our new workshop without Sarmila. She goes through the orders that we send over and distributes them, with wool and knitting instructions, to our knitters. She then performs magic and collects all the knitting back in and somehow manages to get it all back to our main unit for sorting, checking and finishing.
